Obituary

Eric Lamont Proctor was born on July 7, 1959, to the late Irvin Proctor, Sr. and Beulah R. Proctor. He received his education in the District of Columbia school system, graduating from McKinley High School in 1979. He received his certification in Building Maintenance in May 1990 and another certification in Renovations and Repairs in September 1990. In December 1999 he received an Outstanding Service Award from Montpelier Village Condominiums. In 2008 he received a Mechanical Engineering Certificate from the National Power Engineers Association.

Eric passed away on November 24, 2008. He was very loving and caring; a fun-loving practical joker. To know him was to love him. He was also a very willing helper. If something needed fixing and he couldn't fix it personally, he would always know who could help and would make sure they did. Macaroni and cheese was his favorite dish.

Eric leaves to cherish his memory his loving mother, Beulah R. Proctor; daughters Erica, Sharon and Elnora; grandchildren DaShaye, RaeShawn, Janaye and Trinity; brothers Irvin and Arron; sisters-in-law Jacqueline and TerriJoe; son-in-law AnRae; aunts Fredricka, Gladys, Loyce, Helen and Mary; uncles Tyrone and Earl; nieces and nephews Shawn, Shawnese, Irvin, Erin, Victoria, Anthony and Aidan; girlfriend Melissa; best friends Johnny and Derrick; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Acknowledgment

The family wishes to extend sincere thanks and appreciation for your compassion, sympathy and kindness shown during our time of bereavement.

May God bless each and every one of you.

My Confiding Ear

When I thought my heart could beat no more
You opened the gates to a heavenly door.
With my desire for excellence, and promise being near
You were my confiding ear.
With no signs of relief from life's cold tranquil rain
I confide to you ear to ease the pain.
Serenaded with your love from the skies above
I passionately shed a tear.
No longer of fear but from the thought of my confiding ear.
